

The Palestine Teach-in Series at University of Maryland

Learn & Act Fearlessly for Justice in Palestine

- 2/1 Nakba 101: Zionism, 1948, and the Ethnic Cleansing of Palestine w/ Professor Shay Hazkani (5pm in Francis Scott Key Hall 0106)
- 2/7 Screening of the Documentary '1948: Creation & Catastrophe' + Panel Discussion with Directors (5pm in SQH 1101)
- 2/8 Reading Palestine: A Biweekly Reading Group on Palestinian Authors Facilitated by Professor Rachel Schine (Begins 1pm Thursday, February 8th and continues every other week until the end of the semester. To join: Please email palestineteachinseriesumd@gmail.com)
- 2/21 What is Public Safety? Campus Policing, Protest, and Politics w/ Professors Christina Hanhardt and Marcus Johnson (4pm in TBD location)
- 2/26 Screening of Documentary 'Israelism' + Panel Discussion Moderated by Professor Eric Zakim with Students of UMD JVP (5pm in Francis Scott Key Hall 0106)
- 3/ 28 Palestinian Liberation and the Black Radical Tradition w/ Professors Nadia Alahmed and Zenzele Isoke (4pm in TBD location)
- 4/11 Palestine through Poetry: A Poetry Reading (Individuals are welcome to come read their favorite poems written by Palestinians or about Palestine. Moderated by Professors Fatemeh Keshavarz and Matthew Thomas Miller) (5pm in TBD location)
- TBD Screening of Documentary 'The Soldier's Opinion' + Q/A with Co-writer Shay Hazkani (TBD time and location)

For the most up-to-date schedule, please see the online version available here:

Questions? Contact us at: palestineteachinseriesumd@gmail.com